

OGEMAW COUNTY PUBLIC TRANSIT

SERVICE ANIMAL POLICY

Ogemaw County Public Transit, in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, a public transit agency must allow people with disabilities to bring their service animal into all areas where passengers are normally allowed to go.

For the purposes of this policy, a service animal is defined as an animal that is individually trained to perform tasks for people with disabilities such as guiding people who are blind, alerting people who are deaf, pulling wheelchairs, alerting and protecting a person who is having a seizure, or performing other special tasks.

Ogemaw County Public Transit acknowledges that we may:

- Ask if an animal is a service animal
- Ask what tasks the animal has been trained to perform
- Charge a passenger with a disability for damage caused by his or her service animal

Ogemaw County Public Transit also acknowledges that we cannot:

- Require special ID cards for the animal
- Ask about the person's disability
- Charge extra fees for the service animal
- Treat a person with a disability that uses a service animal less favorably than other passengers
- Ask a person with a disability to remove their service animal from the bus unless the animal is out of control and the owner does not take effective action to control it OR if the animal poses a direct threat to the health and safety of others*

*Allergies or fear of animals are generally not valid reasons for denying access or refusing service to passengers with service animals.

Ogemaw County Public Transit is not required to provide care or food for a service animal or provide a location for it to relieve itself.
